THIS MONTH'S silver stars

EVELYN AND RAY ROUSE

There are many synonyms and definitions for talent, but suffice it to say, the Rouse family has many God-given gifts and have gifted them, as well, to their children and grandchildren.

If we look back to Ray's mother, an Australian, we find one source: Aunt Dulcie Holland, who began composing at age 15 and within 30 years, had won nearly every available award for musical composition, and served through the '70s into the '90s as organist and musical director for her church; she was honored on her 80th birthday with a concert in Sydney's Town Hall.

Now, a look at Evelyn's father, who, for years, played clarinet, among other instruments, with the Syracuse Symphony Orchestra. He also served in World War I and played with the Army Band.

Ray and Evelyn were both born and raised in Syracuse, N.Y. They met at age 12, when they were confirmed in the Lutheran Church and both sang in the choir.

Because Ray, an only child, lost his father at age 14, he earned a Bachelor's Degree through Syracuse University by attending night school classes. His talent recognized, he was hired by P&G's Syracuse branch after his Army service during the Korean War.

In 1951, Ray was drafted, trained at Ft. Dix, and spent the Korean War years in the Army's Finance Corps. Released from service in 1953, he was hired by P&G in 1955. (In case you've ever used "Safe-Guard" soap, Ray was its author.) Meanwhile, Evelyn was a secretary at Syracuse University and the two married in 1955. This May, they will celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary.

The Rouse family became three in 1956, when daughter Patricia was born in Syracuse. In that year, Ray was transferred to P&G in Cincinnati. Two more daughters were born: Karen, who now has two sons and Pamela, an attorney, with one son. As for the next generation: One grandson attended U.C.'s D.A.P. and is a graphic artist (visit the Rouse apartment to see samples of his outstanding work). Two grandsons are actors; one attended University of Michigan and has been involved in N.Y. Cabaret productions and musical tours; his brother attended C.C.M., as did Karen and Aunt Patricia. He was cast in the role of "Shrek" for a 10-month world tour and appeared here in February in "Les Miserables" at the Aronoff.

Over the years, Ray realized a need for the use of used cooking fats and oils as a source of energy in the feed for livestock and poultry. He began his own corporations in 1970 (Rouse Marketing) and 2014 (Alifet USA, Inc.) and is well-known for innovations in this field. (On the humorous side, two of the turkeys fed his products were named "Cheese" and "Mac" and were pardoned one Thanksgiving by then President Barack Obama.)

Ray retired five years ago and they are pleased that Seasons is now their home. Evelyn is particularly involved with the Writers' Group and emphasizes that "All are welcome!"

As to those synonyms for "talent," let's just consider it "the gift that keeps on giving."

JOIN US THIS MONTH FOR coffee

LATTE, MOCHA, CAPPUCCINO, ESPRESSO, FRAPPUCCINO, CAFE AU LAIT

And you thought coffee was just something you poured out of a pot and maybe added a little cream or sugar? Think again. This month you'll have a chance to experience several coffee drinks and learn the coffee lingo of lattes, mochas, cappuccinos and learn the difference between an espresso and cafe au lait.

Join us for a trip to a coffee roaster in OTR, coffee bar sampling from Coffee Emporium, a trip to a coffee shop and art gallery, and coffee. Does the most expensive coffee make the best pot of coffee? Find out at our coffee and flavored creamer taste test. Caine and Jill will help you start your morning out right with a specialty coffee and coffee cake — check your calendar for dates.

One thing for sure, with all the coffee we'll be drinking in March, we'll have enough caffeine to stay awake for March Madness!

THIS MONTH'S heart hero

HOSPITALITY, EXCELLENCE,
APPRECIATION,
RESPECT, TEAMWORK

JACK WEAVER

Jack has been part of our Seasons family since 1992 (I'll save you from doing the math — that's 28 years) and he has seen a lot of changes in our community. The one thing that has stayed the same and kept Jack coming to work with a smile for the last 10,220 days are the friends he has made with the people who live and work in our community.

He and his wife, Joyce, have been married for 37 years and have three grown children and three grandchildren. His favorite thing is being with his family and in the summer months you'll find Jack grilling in the backyard. His skill repairing computers has benefited several non-profit agencies. Jack refurbishes computers that were headed for the trash and gives them to agencies that otherwise couldn't afford a computer.

Congratulations to Jack for being awarded Employee of the Month.

IT'S OUR PLEASURE
TO SERVE YOU ...

NOTE FROM NICK

I invite everyone to attend our Resident Association Meeting on March 10, at 3 p.m., in the Auditorium. The meeting will focus on services to keep you healthy that are provided right here at Seasons. I'm guessing there might be some services you might not be aware of that you have access to without leaving our community. Looking forward to seeing you at the meeting.
